Empowering inclusion

Silverwood provides a much-valued SEN outreach service to local authorities, schools, FE and HE providers, families, and pupils across the region.

We have a long history of providing SEN support and delivering life-changing outcomes for children and young adults with special educational needs and disabilities. From delivering group INSET training around supporting students with SEN, to offering personalised support for staff members working with a challenging learner – we're passionate about empowering a culture of collaboration and inclusion.

Our Services

1. Bespoke Student Support

With personalised and specialised action plans to meet the needs of identified students, our tailored support includes:

- A meeting to discuss the issues, goals and what has been tried already
- A conversation with the young person/and or an observation
- A bespoke set of actions to support the young person
- A report summarising the visit and detailing agreed actions

2. High-quality SEN Training Workshops

Ranging from one hour to a full day, we offer face-to-face training workshops at Silverwood School or INSET training sessions at individual schools with a practical focus on creating workable strategies.

3. Consultancy

We offer personalised coaching for leaders in organisations and tailored SEN consultancy services to enable settings to improve their SEN methods and practices.
