Silverwood School Reading Comprehension Progression Map

At Silverwood School we use the VIPERS framework as a key element of our literacy curriculum. VIPERS is an acronym to aid the recall of the six key areas which we feel pupils need to know and understand in order to improve their comprehension of texts.

VIPERS stands for:

Vocabulary

Inference

Prediction

Explanation

Retrieval

Sequencing or Summarise

The six domains focus on the comprehension aspect of reading and not the mechanics: decoding, fluency, prosody etc. As such, VIPERS is not a reading scheme but rather a method of ensuring that teachers ask, and students are familiar with, a range of questions. They allow the teacher to track the type of questions asked and the pupils' responses to these.

Silverwood School Reading Comprehension Progression Map

Level 1

By the end of this level pupils should:

Develop pleasure in reading, motivation to read, vocabulary and understanding by:

- Listening to and discussing a wide range of poems, stories and non-fiction at a level beyond that at which they can read independently
- Becoming very familiar with key stories, fairy stories and traditional tales, retelling them and considering their particular characteristics
- Recognising and joining in with predictable phrases
- Learning to appreciate rhymes and poems, and to recite some by heart
- Discussing word meanings, linking new meanings to those already known
- Being encouraged to link what they read or hear read to their own experiences

Understand both the books they can already read accurately and fluently and those they listen to by:

- Drawing on what they already know or on background information and vocabulary provided by the teacher
- Making inferences on the basis of what is being said and done
- Predicting what might happen on the basis of what has been read so far participate in discussion about what is read to them, taking turns and listening to what others
- Explain clearly their understanding of what is read to them
- Checking that the text makes sense to them as they read and correcting inaccurate reading
- Discussing the significance of the title and events

Level 1

How This Is Delivered

- Model and demonstrate directionality and correct book handling
- Relate spoken words to written words in context
- Encourage pupils to act out parts of the story and retell the story in their own words
- Transcribe the pupil's responses into written ones
- Jump in – Encourage pupils to continue the story to the end of the punctuation in a known story
- Encourage pupils to read as a group or popcorn ideas to share
- Allow pupils to discuss in partners or read together

	Key Reading Skills	Suggested Questions
Vocabulary	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Discussing word meanings, linking new meanings to those already known • Draw upon knowledge of vocabulary in order to understand the text • Join in with predictable phrases • Use vocabulary given by the teacher • Discuss his/her favourite words and phrases 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What does the word mean in this sentence? • Find (and copy) a word which means • Which word do you think is the most important? Why? • Which of the words best describes the character or setting? • Which word in this part do you think is the most important? • Why do you think they repeat this word in the story?
Inference	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Make basic inferences about characters' feelings by using what they say as evidence. • Infer basic points with direct reference to the pictures and words in the text • Discuss the significance of the title and events • Demonstrate simple inference from the text based on what is said and done 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What do you think.....means? • Why do you think that? • How do you think. ...? • When do you think. ...? • Where do you think. ? • How does make you feel? • Why did happen?

By the end of this level pupils should be able to:

Develop pleasure in reading, motivation to read, vocabulary and understanding by:

- Listening to, discussing and expressing views about a wide range of contemporary and classic poetry, stories and non-fiction at a level beyond that at which they can read independently
- Discussing the sequence of events in books and how items of information are related
- Becoming increasingly familiar with and retelling a wider range of stories, fairy stories and traditional tales
- Being introduced to non-fiction books that are structured in different ways
- Recognising simple recurring literary language in stories and poetry
- Discussing and clarifying the meanings of words, linking new meanings to known vocabulary
- Discussing their favourite words and phrases
- Continuing to build up a repertoire of poems learnt by heart, appreciating these and reciting some, with appropriate intonation to make the meaning clear

Understand both the books that they can already read accurately and fluently and those that they listen to by:

- Drawing on what they already know or on background information and vocabulary provided by the teacher
- Checking that the text makes sense to them as they read and correcting inaccurate reading
- Making inferences on the basis of what is being said and done
- Answering and asking questions
- Predicting what might happen on the basis of what has been read so far
- Participate in discussion about books, poems and other works that are read to them and those that they can read for themselves, taking turns and listening to what others say
- Explain and discuss their understanding of books, poems and other material, both those that they listen to and those that they read for themselves

How This Is Delivered

- Relate spoken words to written words in context
- Encourage pupils to retell parts of the story from memory
- Transcribe the pupils' oral responses into written ones and model structures for answering questions
- Always ask the pupils to explain their responses to questions – How do you know?
- Encourage pupils to continue the story to the end of the punctuation in a known story
- Encourage pupils to read as a group or popcorn ideas to questions asking for deeper responses when needed
- Allow pupils to discuss in partners or read together
- Ask pupils to become Reading Detectives and search for clues within texts
- Model reading strategies – re-reading for clarity and understanding

By the end of level 3 Pupils should be able to:

- Develop positive attitudes to reading and understanding of what they read by identifying how language, structure, and presentation contribute to meaning
- Listening to and discussing a wide range of fiction, poetry, plays, non-fiction and reference books or textbooks
- Reading books that are structured in different ways and reading for a range of purposes
- Using dictionaries to check the meaning of words that they have read
- Increasing their familiarity with a wide range of books, including fairy stories, myths and legends, and retelling some of these orally
- Identifying themes and conventions in a wide range of books preparing poems and play scripts to read aloud and to perform, showing understanding through intonation, tone, volume and action
- Discussing words and phrases that capture the reader's interest and imagination
- Recognising some different forms of poetry [for example, free verse, narrative poetry]
- Understand what they read, in books they can read independently, by checking that the text makes sense to them, discussing their understanding and explaining the meaning of words in context
- Asking questions to improve their understanding of a text
- Drawing inferences such as inferring characters' feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions, and justifying inferences with evidence predicting what might happen from details stated and implied
- Identifying main ideas drawn from more than one paragraph and summarising these
- Retrieve and record information from non-fiction
- Participate in discussion about both books that are read to them and those they can read for themselves, taking turns and listening to what others say

How This Is Delivered

- Transcribe the pupils' responses into written ones and model structures for answering question
- Always ask the pupils to explain their responses to questions – How do you know?
- Model creating story maps of events and speech bubbles to demonstrate characters actions, thoughts and feelings
- Relate the text type back to the writing the pupils have completed
- Model how to construct a summary of a text
- Encourage pupils to continue the story to the end of the punctuation in a known story
- Encourage pupils to read as a group or popcorn ideas to questions asking for deeper responses after the initial response
- Allow pupils to discuss in partners or read together
- Ask pupils to become Reading Detectives and search for clues within texts
- Model reading strategies – re-reading for clarity and understanding

	Key Reading Skills	Suggested Questions
Vocabulary	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Use dictionaries to check the meaning of words that they have read • Discuss words that capture the readers interest or imagination • Identify how language choices help build meaning • Find the meaning of new words using substitution within a sentence 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What does this word/phrase/sentence tell you about the character/ setting/mood? • Can you find this word in the dictionary? • By writing in this way, what effect has the author created? • What other words/phrases could the author have used here? • How has the author made you feel by writing...? • Which word tells you that...? • Find and highlight the word that is closest in meaning to...?

Inference	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pupils can infer characters' feelings, thoughts and motives from their stated actions • Justify inferences by referencing a specific point in the text • Ask and answer questions appropriately, including some simple inference questions • Based on characters' feelings, thoughts and motives • Make inferences about actions or events 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What do you think.... means? • Why do you think that? • Why do you think...? • How do you think....? • Can you explain why....? • What do these words mean and why do you think that the author chose them? • Find and copy a group of words which show...? • How does the description of ... show that they are...? • Who is telling the story? • Why has the character done this at this time?
Prediction	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Justify predictions using evidence from the text • Use relevant prior knowledge to make predictions and justify them • Use details from the text to form further predictions 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Can you think of another story with a similar theme? • Which stories have openings like this? • Do you think that this story will develop the same way? • Why did the author choose this setting? Level 5

By the end of Level 5 pupils should be able to:

Maintain positive attitudes to reading and understanding of what they read by:

- Continuing to read and discuss an increasingly wide range of fiction, poetry, plays, non-fiction and reference books or textbooks
- Reading books that are structured in different ways and reading for a range of purposes
- Increasing their familiarity with a wide range of books, including myths, legends and traditional stories, modern fiction, fiction from our literary heritage, and books from other cultures and traditions recommending books that they have read to their peers, giving reasons for their choices
- Identifying and discussing themes and conventions in and across a wide range of writing
- Learning a wider range of poetry by heart
- Making comparisons within and across books
- Preparing poems and plays to read aloud and to perform, showing understanding through intonation, tone and volume so that the meaning is clear to an audience
- Understand what they read by: checking that the book makes sense to them, discussing their understanding and exploring the meaning of words in context
- Asking questions to improve their understanding
- Drawing inferences such as inferring characters' feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions, and justifying inferences with evidence predicting what might happen from details stated and implied
- Summarising the main ideas drawn from more than one paragraph, identifying key details that support the main ideas
- Identifying how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning
- Discuss and evaluate how authors use language, including figurative language, considering the impact on the reader
- Distinguish between statements of fact and opinion
- Retrieve, record and present information from non-fiction
- Participate in discussions about books that are read to them and those they can read for themselves, building on their own and others'

Level 5

How This Is Delivered

- Transcribe the pupils' responses into written ones and model structures for answering question. Ensure that a full answer is modelled to the pupils
- Always ask the pupils to justify their responses to questions – How do you know?
- Ask pupils to keep a running response in their reading journal.
- Create comparison grids for different fiction and non-fiction texts
- Create semantic grids of texts to help to categorise key information
- Write information gained from the text into a different context
- Change part of the text from fiction to non-fiction and vice-versa.
- Fully develop skimming and scanning techniques – faster finger first – to find particular parts of the text
- Relate the text type back to the writing the pupils have completed
- Model how to construct a summary of a text
- Encourage pupils to continue the story to the end of the punctuation in a known story
- Encourage pupils to read as a group or popcorn ideas to questions asking for deeper responses after the initial response
- Allow pupils to discuss in partners or read together
- Ask pupils to become Reading Detectives and search for clues within text
- Create Venn diagrams to demonstrate similarities and differences between plots, characters, settings etc

By the end of this level pupils should be able to:

Maintain positive attitudes to reading and understanding of what they read by:

- Continuing to read and discuss an increasingly wide range of fiction, poetry, plays, non-fiction and reference books or textbooks
- Reading books that are structured in different ways and reading for a range of purposes
- Increasing their familiarity with a wide range of books, including myths, legends and traditional stories, modern fiction, fiction from our literary heritage, and books from other cultures and traditions recommending books that they have read to their peers, giving reasons for their choices
- Identifying and discussing themes and conventions in and across a wide range of writing
- Learning a wider range of poetry by heart
- Making comparisons within and across books
- Preparing poems and plays to read aloud and to perform, showing understanding through intonation, tone and volume so that the meaning is clear to an audience
- Understand what they read by: checking that the book makes sense to them, discussing their understanding and exploring the meaning of words in context
- Asking questions to improve their understanding
- Drawing inferences such as inferring characters' feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions, and justifying inferences with evidence predicting what might happen from details stated and implied
- Summarising the main ideas drawn from more than one paragraph, identifying key details that support the main ideas
- Identifying how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning
- Discuss and evaluate how authors use language, including figurative language, considering the impact on the reader
- Distinguish between statements of fact and opinion
- Retrieve, record and present information from non-fiction
- Participate in discussions about books that are read to them and those they can read for themselves, building on their own and others'

Level 6

How This Is Delivered

- Transcribe the pupils' responses into written ones and model structures for answering question. Ensure a full answer is modelled to pupils
- Always ask the pupils to justify their responses to questions – How do you know?
- Ask pupils to keep a running response in their reading journal.
- Create comparison grids for different fiction and non-fiction texts
- Create semantic grids of texts to help to categorise key information
- Write information gained from the text into a different context
- Change part of the text from fiction to non-fiction and vice-versa.
- Fully develop skimming and scanning techniques – faster finger first – to find particular parts of the text
- Relate the text type back to the writing the pupils have completed
- Model how to construct a summary of a text
- Encourage pupils to continue the story to the end of the punctuation in a known story
- Encourage pupils to read as a group or popcorn ideas to questions asking for deeper responses after the initial response
- Allow pupils to discuss in partners or read together
- Ask pupils to become Reading Detectives and search for clues within text
- Create Venn diagrams to demonstrate similarities and differences between plots, characters, settings etc

Vocabulary	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Evaluate how the authors' use of language impacts upon the reader • Find examples of figurative language and how this impacts the reader and contributes to meaning or mood. • Discuss how presentation and structure contribute to meaning. • Explore the meaning of words in context by 'reading around the word' and independently explore its meaning in the broader context of a section or paragraph. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What does this word/phrase/sentence tell you about the character/ setting/ mood? • By writing..., what effect has the author created? Do you think they intended to? • Can you find examples of simile, metaphor, hyperbole or personification in the text? • Why has the text been organised in this way? Would you have done it differently? • What other words/phrases could the author have used here? Why? How has the author made you/this character feel by writing...? Why?

Inference	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Drawing inferences such as inferring characters' feelings, thoughts and motives from • Their actions, and justifying inferences with evidence • Discuss how characters change and develop through texts by drawing inferences based on indirect clues • Make inferences about events, feelings, states backing these up with evidence • Infer characters' feelings, thoughts and motives, giving more than one piece of evidence to support each point made • They can draw evidence from different places across the text 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What do you think... means? Why do you think that? Could it be anything else? • I think....; do you agree? Why/why not? • Why do you think the author decided to...? • Can you explain why...? • What do these words mean and why do you think that the author chose them? • How do other people's descriptions of ...show that...? • Where else in the text can we find the answer to this question?
Prediction	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Predicting what might happen from details stated and implied • Support predictions by using relevant evidence from the text • Confirm and modify predictions in light of new information 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Can you think of another story with a similar theme? How do their plots differ? • Which stories have openings like this? Do you think that this story will develop the same way? • Why did the author choose this setting? Will that influence the story?
Explaining	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide increasingly reasoned justification for my views • Recommend books for peers in detail • Give reasons for authorial choices • Begin to challenge points of view • Begin to distinguish between fact and opinion • Identifying how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning • Discuss and evaluate how authors use language, including figurative language, considering the impact on the reader • Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, including through formal presentations and debates • Distinguish between fact, opinion and bias explaining how they know this 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What is similar/different about two characters? Did the author intend that? • Explain why... did that. • Describe different characters' reactions to the same event. • Does this story have a moral? • Which is better and why? • Can you identify where the author has shown bias towards a particular character? • Is it fact or is it opinion? How do you know? • How does the author make you feel at this point in the story? Why did they do that? • Can you explain it in a different way?

Retrieval	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pupils confidently skim and scan, and also use the skill of reading before and after to retrieve information. *They use evidence from across whole chapters or texts • Read a broader range of texts including myths, legends, stories from other cultures, modern fiction, plays, poetry and archaic texts • Retrieve, record and present information from a wide variety of non-fiction texts • Ask my own questions and follow a line of enquiry 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Find the... in this text. Is it anywhere else? • Can you skim the next... and find me the answer to...? • When/where is this story set? Find evidence in the text. • Find the part of the story that best describes the setting. • What do you think is happening here? Why? • Who is telling this story? • What genre is...? • Can you look at these other texts and find me what is similar and what is different?
Summarise	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Summarise information from across a text and link information by analysing and evaluating ideas between sections of the text. • Summarising the main ideas drawn from more than one paragraph, identifying key details to support the main ideas • Make comparisons across different books • Summarise entire texts, in addition to chapters or paragraphs, using a limited amount of words or paragraphs 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What is the main point of the text? • Can you look in this paragraph? What does the author mean? Is it mentioned anywhere else? • Sum up what has happened so far in... words/seconds or less. • Can you read the text and summarise what has happened? • Which is the most important point in these paragraphs? Why? • Do any sections/paragraphs deal with the same themes?
